JAMES C. DOBSON, Ph.D.

Biographical Information

James C. Dobson, Ph.D., is founder and president of Focus on the Family, a nonprofit organization that produces his nationally syndicated radio programs, heard daily on more than 1100 stations.

He was for 14 years, an Associate Clinical Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Southern California School of Medicine, and served for 17 years on the Attending Staff of Childrens Hospital of Los Angeles in the Division of Child Development and Medical Genetics. He has a Ph.D. from the University of Southern California and a Doctorate of Laws from Pepperdine University.

His first book for parents and teachers, Dare to Discipline, has now sold over one million copies and was selected as one of 50 books to be rebound and placed in the White House Library. His subsequent ten books for the family are also best-sellers, as follows: Hide or Seek, What Wives Wish Their Husbands Knew About Women, The Strong-Willed Child, Preparing For Adolescence, Straight Talk to Men and Their Wives, Emotions: Can You Trust Them?, Dr. Dobson Answers Your Questions, Love Must Be Tough, Love For A Lifetime, and Parenting Isn't For Cowards.

His first film series, "Focus on the Family," has now been seen by over 60 million people. His newest film series, "Turn Your Heart Toward Home," was released in January, 1986 and is breaking records set by the first series.

More recently, Dr. Dobson has been heavily involved in governmental activities related to the family. He served on the Task Force which summarized the White House Conferences on the Family and received a special commendation from President Jimmy Carter in 1980. He was appointed by President Ronald Reagan to the National Advisory Commission to the office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 1982-84. From 1984 to 1987, he was regularly invited to the White House to consult with President Reagan and his staff on family matters. He served as Cochairman of the Citizens Advisory Panel for Tax Reform, in consultation with President Reagan, and currently serves as Chairman of the United States Army Task Force on Families, originally in consultation with General John Wickham, Jr., Chief of Staff, U.S. Army. He was appointed to Attorney General Ed Meese's Commission on Pornography, 1985-86. Dr. Dobson was appointed in the Spring of 1987, to the Attorney General's Advisory Board on Missing and Exploited Children, and to Secretary Otis Bowen's Panel on Teen Pregnancy Prevention, within the Department of Health and Human Services. In October, 1987, he received the Marian Pfister Anschutz award in recognition of his contribution to the American family. A special video taped message of congratulations was sent by President Reagan.

Dr. Dobson is married, the father of two children, and resides in Southern California.
